CEORGE CHRISTY AND WOOD'S MINSTRELS STOCK is rising, and so are shirt collars. If you doubt this last ageertion, call at 448 Broadway, and look at the magnificent car acreens worn by Googe. A morry heart, sound health, a clear conscience, and a high shirt collar, are great provocatives of mirth. If you are sceptical as to the truth of this, try a few, and satisfy yourself; but come early. of this, try a few, and satisfy yourself; but come early.

CEORGE CHRISTY AND WOOD'S MINSTRELS WISH

T to impart to the public an interesting fact. Time was when George Christy received. "about 235,600 for two years' cervices." "Ma conshense!" exclaims some astonished tiped; but "hold your horses!" Time is, at present, when George Christy, as 446 Broadway, receives within a fraction of $7,000 for only three months services, at which rate his pay, for two years, would amount to nearly fifty sit thousand doilars, (256,000.) Will young men, who are making a fortune for others, make a note of this?

CEORGE CHRISTY AND WOOD'S MINSTRELS of Burope. They have too much business on hand at home—446 Broadway—and could not think of depriving their New York patrons of the pleasure of their company.

GEORGE CHRISTY AND WOOD'S MINSTRELS would enlarge their already spacious Hall, at 444 Broadway, if they could do so without being obliged to postpone their performances; but if it were announced that their house was to close, if only for one night, they would be deliged with remeastrances from pleasure seckers in consequence. This it is to be popular.
